

I strongly support strict limits on the number & location of broadcast & press outlets that individuals and companies may own. Access to diverse viewpoints is critical for citizens, & is jeopardized by concentrated ownership.

Normally, I don't approve of government limits on speech, but allowing a few companies to own & control the bulk of media is a worse limit on speech & access to information.